QUEERUPTION

is a free DIY radical queer gathering that has so far happened in London, New York, San Francisco, and Berlin. Every Queeruption is a little different from the last one, shaped by the people who plan it, the community that makes it happen, and the possibilities of each new location.

In some of its previous incarnations, QUEERUPTION has been dubbed a radical queer encuentro (New York, 1999), an explosion of sex and politics (London, 2002), and a great queer camping trip (Berlin, 2003).

Past QUEERUPTIONs have included shared vegan meals, political discussions, direct actions, skills workshops, bands, spoken word, dressup and cabaret, dance parties, film screenings, radical sex, spontaneous haircuts, and more.

The first QUEERUPTION happened in the Spring of 1998, when about a hundred queers spent a weekend together in a squatted building in South London. The goal of the organizers was to make a politically inspiring and educational gathering that was open to all, and was about us all taking initiative, creating and participating, instead of just consuming a lifestyle sold to us.

Since then, QUEERUPTION gatherings have happened in New York, San Francisco, London again, and Berlin. In London and Berlin, Queeruption took place in a single location where everyone who wanted to could live together communally.

In San Francisco and New York, the gathering was spread throughout the city space, with events, meals, and accommodation in different locations. In London it was possible to squat a building, use it for one week, and then exit, leaving it once again an anonymous, unused space.

In New York and San Francisco, queeruptors were welcomed into a variety of venues, including warehouse collectives, clubs, art galleries, infoshops, an alternative college campus, and individual homes. In Berlin, the political crackdown on squatting made it impossible to house everyone together centrally, so the gathering was held outside of the city on squatted land.

While some gatherings have been more communal and others more spread out, some held in the city and others rurally, the overall effect is one of building radical queer community, both within the local scene and internationally. Ongoing discussions within the community include topics of race, class, and cultural exclusivity, ablism, gender binarism/transphobia, and the reproduction of oppressive sexual norms within radical communities. These topics are of central concern for many of us in our personal lives as well as in the political sphere, and they also come up within the context of QUEERUPTION itself. As a community, in an evolving way, we are grappling with these issues.

QUEERUPTORS are active and support each other in a wide variety of political projects, including Black Laundry (queers against the Israeli occupation), Gayten-LGBT (queer safety, visibility, and solidarity in Serbia), Anarchist People of Color (building a revolutionary anarchist people of color movement), Queer Mutiny and Gay Shame (creating queer alternatives to political apathy and cultural consumerism), Indymedia (international, community-based alternative media), Paper Tiger TV (challenging and exposing corporate control of mainstream media), Women on Waves (providing safe, legal abortions in countries where it's illegal), PISSR (trans rights campaign to legalize unisex public bathrooms), the Noborder Network (opposing border fascism in the EU), Disarm DSEI (protesting Europe's largest annual arms fair), and numerous campaigns against the propagation of state terrorism, economic globalization and wars without end.

QUEERUPTION is a DIY event in that every person who attends is ideally a participant, whether that means cooking, performing, making a workshop, doing first aid, planning a political action, or helping to clean up when the party's over.

QUEERUPTION gatherings are free and donation based. No one who organizes, performs, screens a film, or makes a flyer for the gathering is paid, and no one is turned away from any event or accommodation for lack of funds. As much as possible, space, meals, materials and equipment are acquired by donation and innovation -- but some aspects of the gathering inevitably cost money.

The next QUEERUPTION is planned for Holland June 1 to 7 2004, followed by one in Australia in early 2005. A related queer gathering is also being planned for Serbia in July of 2004. The money raised by the Bay Area Queeruption benefits will help provide the space, meals, materials, and equipment for these gatherings. Money will also go toward a travel fund for queers from non-EU (i.e., economically sanctioned) Eastern European countries.

GAY SHAME

queers against capitalism

Gay Shame is a radical alternative to and the increasingly complacent left. We activism that addresses issues of race,
sexuality, too counter the self-servive mainstream. We fight the rabid, assur-corporate gay culture with a devastatqueer brilliance. Gay Shame is a polit-Alliance welcome. We demand that you participate in this community. fleshi-
